

VISITORS FROM OREGON PRAISE HONOLULU

Mr. William J. Patterson and Mr. W. E. Grace of Baker City, Ore., are the gentlemen who are trying to secure the band for the Lewis & Clarke Exposition, which will open next June. Many Oregon people heard the band at San Francisco and the novel quality of its music so appealed to them as to lead to the negotiations now in hand. Oregon will pay a goodly sum for the use of the band and if Hawaii will help a bit, the local musicians will probably go. Mr. Patterson says that the fair will give a fine chance for the distribution of island promotion literature.

Both these visitors are impressed with the beauties of Honolulu of which they had received no idea from the literature they have read. They intend to write about the place for the Oregonian and other coast journals.
